

Press Release – June 27, 2024

Ms. Stephanie Morrow was recently appointed by Cherokee County to serve a three-year term on the Upstate Workforce Board. She is an experienced professional in community development and has a proven track record of creating impactful partnerships. Stephanie is currently employed as an Employment Specialist for Goodwill Job Connection in Gaffney.

Stephanie is deeply passionate about contributing to the advancement of her community and considers it a great honor to serve on the Upstate Workforce Board. Her dedication to fostering positive change and creating opportunities for the members of her community are the driving forces in her professional endeavors. Ms. Morrow is dedicated to leveraging her expertise and experience to make a meaningful impact on the workforce development initiatives that benefit her community.

The Upstate Workforce Board receives federal dollars yearly that are designated for workforce development in Cherokee, Spartanburg and Union counties. The Board partners with employers and the workforce development system to develop policies and investments that support public workforce system strategies that support regional economies. In program year 2023 (July 1, 2023 – June 30, 2024), the Upstate Workforce Board secured over $2,000,000 in funds for workforce development. The Upstate Workforce Board is a major funder of the SC Works system and the ACHIEVE youth program.

---

---

Submitted by:

*Ann Angermeier, CEO
Upstate Workforce Board
ann@upstatewb.org
864-596-2028*